

KALIMPONG COLLEGE

Departmental Activities

Zoology

1. Students are being regularly encouraged to take part in field study and Zoological excursions.
2. Students are being regularly trained to estimate population density of plankton, insects, and estimation of dissolved oxygen, free carbon-di-oxide and total alkalinity of water samples.
3. Faculty members of the department researching on the diversity of plankton, ichthyofauna and entomofauna of this region. They have published several research papers and attended seminars and symposium.
4. Blood grouping camp and awareness programme on blood donation has been organised.
5. Regularly publishing Wall magazine, organizing seminars, Science exhibitions, workshops, invited talks etc.